MEMBERS ABSENT: Jose Skrobot

STAFF PRESENT: Rob Pileckis, Assistant Director of Cultural Services

CALL TO ORDER:

Suzanne Poeschel called the meeting to order at 5:30 p.m.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS:

1. Discussion on potential Sister City relationship with Indore, India
The subcommittee discussed the steps to be taken in considering a proposal presented to the Sister Cities commission to establish a sister cities partnership with Indore, India. The subcommittee acknowledged Indore's designation as the cleanest city in India for seven consecutive years, citing a mutual objective with Schaumburg in employing green initiatives. Vandana Jhingan noted that Indore is a centrally located city that is easily accessible with its own international airport. The subcommittee reviewed Sister Cities International's community pairing survey, agreeing that survey modifications were needed to better determine sister city compatibility between the two municipalities. The subcommittee will set up a shared document to create a new pairing survey for both cities.

DEFERRALS:

No deferrals.
